FINANCIAL AID SERVICES

Verification Procedures

If the federal processor has selected your FAFSA for Verification, Connecticut College is required to collect additional documentation to confirm the accuracy of the information provided on your federal financial aid application.

Additional documentation generally includes, but may not be limited to, the attached Verification Worksheet and confirmation of IRS tax return data. If additional or alternative items are required to satisfy the verification process, those requirements will be posted on your self-service account on CamelWeb.

Please reference your self-service account on CamelWeb for specific documents that are required to complete your file.

For students and parents who filed a 2017 tax return:

1. IRS Data Retrieval Tool - The fastest and easiest method to verify your IRS data is through the use of the IRS Data Retrieval Tool (DRT) on the FAFSA. The DRT pulls data from the IRS database and uses that data to populate income and tax fields on the FAFSA.
 - Some families will not be permitted to use the DRT because of their tax filing status. If you cannot use the DRT, please see option #2.
 - This process will need to be completed for the parent(s) and student if the student also filed a tax return.
 - The DRT takes you to the IRS website, where you'll need to log in by providing your name and other information exactly as it appears on your tax return. When you return to the FAFSA, you'll see that the questions that are populated with tax information will be marked with "Transferred from the IRS". Do not make changes to those answers, or you'll invalidate the information you retrieved. After transferring your IRS data, sign and submit your corrected FAFSA.

OR

2. Tax Return Transcript – If you are unable or choose not to use the IRS Data Retrieval Tool, you will be required to submit an IRS Tax Return Transcript to Financial Aid Services. For information on how to obtain a Tax Return Transcript, please visit <http://www.irs.gov/Individuals/Get-Transcript>.

For students and parents who did not file a 2017 tax return:

1. Non Tax-Filer Statement – Complete and send to our office the appropriate Non Tax-Filer Statement. This can be found on our Forms and Publications link.

AND

2. Verification of Nonfiling – The IRS will send you this statement after you submit IRS Form 4506-T (<https://www.irs.gov/pub/irs-pdf/f4506t.pdf>) to the IRS. Parents and independent students are required to submit the verification on nonfiling. This is not a requirement for dependent student.
